

So what happens when the N.Y.C. Commission on Human Rights discriminates?

–Roy Den Hollander (917 687 0652)

Anti-feminist attorney Roy Den Hollander is suing in the N.Y. Supreme Court the N.Y.C. Commission on Human Rights and the Commission’s Executive Director of Law Enforcement—Carlos Velez for discriminating against him because he is a Euro-American. Then again, maybe Velez and the Commission discriminated against him for being an African-American. After all, everyone’s ancestors originated in Africa.

Anyway, in 2012, Velez issued an Order, adopted by the Commission in 2013, that Den Hollander charges was motivated by Velez’s prejudice against Euro-Americans of protestant ancestry, divorced husbands who have nothing good to say about their ex-wives, and men who choose to litigate rather than bow and scrap to feminist and political correctionalist totalitarianism.

“Totalitarianism!” Whoa, that’s a little strong—or is it? “To exalt as an absolute is the mark of totalitarianism, and it is possible to have an atmosphere of totalitarianism in a society that has many of the attributes of democracy.” Professor Howard Zinn. Believing that certain political beliefs are the only “correct” ones sounds absolute. Not good enough, how about a feminist and PCer “tyranny.” “The accumulation of all powers, legislative, executive, and judiciary, in the same hands . . . may justly be pronounced the very definition of tyranny.” James Madison, Federalist Paper 47. So what ideology rules over the actions of most government officials—feminism and PC.

Velez’s Order dismissed Den Hollander’s age discrimination complaint against the nightclub Amnesia based on various extra-legal and bigoted reasons that expose a discriminatory intent by Velez in investigating, writing, and issuing the Order.

Amnesia refused to admit Den Hollander and his equally older attorney friend and former Democratic State Committeeman unless they bought a $350 bottle of watered down, brandless vodka. They declined. Den Hollander then filed a sex discrimination complaint with the State Human Rights Division. The State said no sex discrimination, but it looked like age discrimination. The State, however, lacks jurisdiction over nightclubs for age discrimination but NYC Human Rights has such jurisdiction, so off Den Hollander righteously went to complain.

At NYC Human Rights, Velez refused to accept Den Hollander’s complaint by claiming there was no discrimination because had Den Hollander and his friend agreed to buy a $350 bottle, they could have entered. Duh, that can’t be right; otherwise, years ago in the Deep South it would have been okay to require people with relatively darker skin color to enter a public bus so long as they sat in the back. The U.S. Supreme Court kicked that looney-tune reasoning out of the law in Browder v. Gayle, 352 U.S. 903 (1956).

A letter to the Commissioner forced Velez to accept the case but didn't reign in his prejudice that colored his investigation, reasoning, and Order. Among the reasons for dismissing the age discrimination complaint Velez wrote:

“Complainant [Den Hollander] is a self-professed advocate for men's rights who identifies himself as an 'anti-feminist lawyer' on his website, www.roydenhollander.com. He has filed a number of lawsuits against bars and clubs that have 'Ladies Nights,' and admits in several online publications that he is 'bitter' from an ex-wife who used him for his US citizenship and money. Complainant's description of himself is consistent with his pattern of filing several gender discrimination suits.” Velez Determination and Order, Ex A. at p. Tres.

So what's that got to do with an age-discrimination complaint? Sounds like the typical feminist and PCer tactic of discrediting someone by pegging them as a member of a currently disfavored group. In Den Hollander's case, a member of the last remaining 200 men in this country willing to fight for their constitutional rights against the feminists and PCers. Although some think that 200 number is too high.

Thank you for your time.
